

January 21 - 27, 2005

DEBUGGING THE NUMBERS

Meanwhile, West Coast Asset Management, the Ventura-based company includes Kinkos Founder Paul Orfalea as co-founder, applauds the resignation of Krispy Kreme Chief Executive Officer Scott Livengood. It warns about "accounting cockroaches" that can "take a big bite" out of stocks that have financial reporting problems.

